

2009 House of Delegates Family Value Voting Records

1. Marriage Protection Amendment discharge motion When an issue is supported by a majority of the citizens of West Virginia and cannot gain support from the majority in the House of Delegates it is imperative to have a rule in place that would allow for the issue to be debated by the members. A discharge motion is that rule, whereby an issue would be debated on the floor of the House by all the members rather than a committee. West Virginia passed a Defense of Marriage law (DOMA) in April 2000 to define marriage as only between "one man and one woman", however, afterwards it was learned the WV Supreme Court of Appeals unilaterally added "sexual orientation" as a protected class to their Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 3(B)(6), tipping the Court's hand on its determination to force homosexual behavior in all its forms on all West Virginians. Additionally, homosexuals have been granted custody of children on two different occasions over heterosexual couples by the Court. Majority Leader Brent Boggs (D-Braxton) in opposing the motion stated that it is not good policy to circumvent the committee process. (HJR 5) 3/30/09 RC#145 (65-31)
2. Marriage Protection Amendment discharge motion with the leadership motion to postpone indefinitely the motion to discharge, a motion was made by Delegate Tim Armstead (R-Kanawha) to have the Marriage Protection Amendment discharged from Constitutional Revision Committee where it had been bottled up by Chairwoman Barbara Fleischauer (D-Monongalia). This vote was to kill the motion made by Armstead to allow the WV Marriage Amendment to be voted out of this committee and to be discussed and voted on the House floor. Passage of the Marriage Protection Amendment would permit West Virginia voters to decide at the ballot box if marriage should remain as only between "one man and one woman", thereby prohibiting the WV Supreme Court of Appeals the opportunity to strike down West Virginia's marriage law enacted on April 4, 2000 to protect traditional marriage. (HJR 5) 3/30/09 RC#146 (67-30)
3. Marriage Resolution requesting a constitutional amendment be added by Governor Joe Manchin to the call of the scheduled extended or extraordinary session. This would allow the marriage amendment to be taken up and voted on. (HCR 121) 4-13-09 (48 sponsors)
4. Doubling alcohol content of beer This proposal would increase the maximum alcohol content of "non-intoxicating" beer from 6% by volume to 12% and would accommodate craft beer which often has higher alcohol content. (HB 2719) 3/11/09 RC#37 (79-17)
5. Expand liquor sales to Election Day, on Sundays after 1pm and with no bid contract extension for 10 years which takes away competition and favors existing stand alone store owners. These liquor stores would have their licenses extended for 10 years and only have to pay up to 10% over what they paid 10 years earlier, possibly costing the state millions in additional revenues by avoiding the competition. (SB 282) 4/10/09 (Good Friday) RC#366 (51-49)
6. Passage of liquor licenses including now authorizing Sunday sales and on Election Day and without auction process (SB 282) 4/10/09 RC#367 (62-38)
7. Gambling bill for the Greenbrier Hotel Several years ago the Legislature passed a bill that would allow gambling at the Greenbrier hotel, for guests only, if the citizens of Greenbrier county approved. The citizens did not approve and the Legislature tried again in 2009 to pass a bill allowing the Greenbrier to have a full casino, with expansion at four tracks as well. (SB 575) 4/10/09 RC#360 (83-17)
8. Strip Joint restrictions Before 2009 many counties had the problem of adult only establishments locating in places where the citizens really did not want them. The bill passed by the Legislature authorized counties with planning commissions to be able to regulate the location of exotic entertainment businesses. (SB 1010) 6/2/09 RC#570 (93-0)
